Retirement of emergency currency in Washington was first commenced in November, when $250,000 was returned; in December but $80,000 was paid back; $149,000 in January, $110,000 in February, and yesterday $28,000 was retired, completing the repayment. ompleting the repayment. . Emergency currency, of which nearly $100,000,000 was taken out in the United States, relieved the stress of the situa States, relieved the stress of the situation materially, at a time when the intelasticity of the national banking act was still a handicap to the needed expansion of the currency and the federal reserve act, while a law, had not been made effective.

Charles C. Glover, president of the Riggs National Bank, is generally accredited with having assisted in the preparation of the emergency currency law.

law.

The revenues of the government have been increased by $653,554.50, representing accumulated taxes on the emergency currency circulation, the provisions for the retirement of the currency calling for a graduated scale of taxes, which now equals 5½ per cent, on all outstanding circulation of this character.

Controller of the Treasury Downey ruled late yesterday that this emer-gency currency tax should be carried under the head of "gold reserve."

LONDON'S TRADE FIGURES.

LONDON, March 6.—The figures of the board of trade for February show that during this month Great Britain's imports increased $16,075,000, while exports decreased $16,075,000.

The principal increase in imports was in food, amounting to $35,000,000. This was offset by a decrease in the importation of manufactured articles, and of this $17,500,000 was in cotton textiles.

ALEXANDRIA, Va., March 6 .- Mrs. Alice Francis, wife of Peter Francis. 23,292,000 living at 1118 Prince street, was the $270.543.000 victim of a highwayman at 7 o'clock last night while walking to her home. last night while walking to her home.

Mrs. Francis was attacked while on the west side of Henry street north of Prince street. Coming up from behind, her assailant grabbed her leather hand
satchel and made off in the darkness.
The satchel contained $6.75, a pair of eyeglasses and some papers.
Mrs. Francis was thrown against a fence nearby in the brief scuffle which ensued. She at once proceeded to her home and notified the police. According to Mrs. Francis, her assailant was a negro.
Chief Goods and Policemen Norris and Ferguson arrested a suspect early today. Mrs. Francis was unable to iden-

Ferguson arrested a suspect early to-day. Mrs. Francis was unable to iden-tify him and he was released. The police are investigating a report that a soldier yesterday afternoon at-tempted to attack Pearl Hammill, the ten-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. K. Hammill, in the southwestern section of the city. He fled when the girl made an outcry. No arrest has been made

The Safest Investments

Are those that do not fluctuate during dis-turbed conditions of the money or stock market. First deed of trust notes (first mortrages), well secured on real estate in the District of Co-dumbia, constitute 'glit edge' investments. They do not depend upon the financial responsibility of indi-viduals or corporations for their stability and are exempt from taxation as personal property. We can supply such investments in amounts from $500 upward. Send for booklet. "Concerning Loans and Invest-ments."
